

McCormick Announces Organizational Changes

September 6, 2005

SPRING, Md., Sept. 6 (PRNewswire FirstCall) – McCormick & Company, Incorporated (NYSE: MCC), today announced several key organizational changes.

Several months ago the Company announced the upcoming retirement of Robert G. Davis, President Global Industrial Group. Today, Charles T. Langford, formerly Vice President & General Manager Food Service & Global Restaurant Division, was named President – U.S. Industrial Group. In addition to leading the Company's U.S. Industrial business, his responsibilities will include overall coordination of key global industrial customers.

Mark T. Tridico, formerly President – International Consumer Products Group, will become President-International with responsibility for both the consumer and industrial groups outside of North America as well as the Company's joint ventures in Mexico.

Alan D. Wilcox, formerly President North American Consumer Foods and U.S. Supply Chain, Alan will be responsible for the Company's consumer businesses in the U.S. and both the consumer and industrial businesses in Canada. The U.S. Supply Chain departments and functions, including manufacturing, will also report to Alan.

Lawrence Kuzlarski, formerly Vice President & General Manager Sales & Marketing for the U.S. consumer business, will become President U.S. Consumer Foods, reporting to Alan.

Chuck Mann and Alan will report to Robert J. Lawless, Chairman, President & CEO of MCC/Company. These changes are effective immediately. Reporting of support functions has not changed at the time, but in the future will be realigned as appropriate to provide maximum effectiveness and efficiency.

Commented Bob Lawless, "Our Company continues to evolve, and the organizational changes described above reflect the growth of our businesses worldwide and the evolution of our customer base. These changes will allow us to take advantage of our regional capabilities while maintaining coordination with our global customers. I have confidence that both our consumer and industrial businesses will succeed and grow under the leadership of Mark, Alan and Chuck."
