April 24, 2017

Former Baltimore Raven and 13-time Pro Bowler Ray Lewis to address student athletes

SMITHS, Md., April 24, 2017 PRNewswire/—McCormick & Company, Incorporated (NYSE: MCC) a global leader in flavor, today announced that Ray Lewis will deliver the keynote address at the 77th Annual McCormick Unsung Heroes Awards Banquet to be held on Monday, May 1, 2017.

Mr. Lewis is a former Baltimore Ravens defensive end who is widely considered to be one of the most dominant defensive players in the history of the NFL. A two-time NFL Defensive Player of the Year and a 13-time Pro Bowl selection, Mr. Lewis is also the only player in NFL history with at least 40 career sacks and over 30 interceptions. He led the Ravens to victory in Super Bowl XXXV in 2001 and in Super Bowl XLVII in 2012, when he played his last NFL game.

The Unsung Heroes Banquet honors deserving student athletes. A total of 111 high school seniors from 68 Baltimore area public, private, parochial and independent schools have been nominated. For the first time Unsung Heroes selection, the nominations are open to all high school sports. Two of the honorees—one male and one female—will receive the 2017 Charles Perry McCormick Scholarship, valued $60,000 over four academic years. Four additional scholarships will be awarded to students for their efforts on and off the field.

The Unsung Heroes program recognizes unselfish student athletes and honors those who substantially contribute to the success of their school without receiving acclaim. Originally established in 1940 by former McCormick & Company Chairman Charles P. McCormick, Sr., the program is reflective of McCormick & Company's core belief in The Power of People. More than 700 city and county officials, school administrators, coaches, honorees and guests are expected to attend the year's event.
