

McCormick Announces Common Stock Non-Voting Offering to Fund Part of its Acquisition of Reckitt Benckiser's Food Division

August 7, 2017

SPRING, Md., Aug. 7, 2017 /PRNewswire - McCormick & Company Inc. (NYSE: MKC) ("McCormick" or the "Company"), a global leader in flavor, today announced that it has launched an underwritten public offering (the "Offering") of $500 million of its common stock non-voting ("Common Stock Non-Voting"). In connection with the Offering, McCormick intends to grant the underwriters an option for 30 days to purchase up to $75 million of additional shares of its Common Stock Non-Voting.

McCormick intends to use the net proceeds of the Offering to fund, in part, the purchase price of its previously announced pending acquisition (the "Acquisition") of Reckitt Benckiser's Food Division ("RB Food"). McCormick expects to fund the balance of the purchase price and pay related fees and expenses with the net proceeds from additional debt financing, including a senior unsecured notes offering and borrowing under an unsecured term loan facility, and to the extent all or a portion of the net proceeds from the Offering and/or the notes offering are not available, an unsecured bridge loan facility, as well as cash on hand. The Offering is not contingent on the closing of the Acquisition or any debt financing. If for any reason the Acquisition does not close, McCormick intends to use the net proceeds from the Offering for general corporate purposes, which may include the financing of future acquisitions and the repayment of existing indebtedness.

Both Merrill Lynch, Credit Suisse, SunTrust Robinson-Humphrey and Wells Fargo Securities are acting as joint book-running managers for the Offering.

This press release is neither an offer to sell nor a solicitation of an offer to buy any of the Common Stock Non-Voting or any other security of McCormick, nor shall there be any sale of the Common Stock Non-Voting or any other security of McCormick in any jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

The Offering is being made pursuant to an effective shelf registration statement, as amended, including a base prospectus, that has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on August 7, 2017 and is available on the SEC website. A preliminary prospectus supplement and the accompanying base prospectus related to the Offering have been filed with the SEC on August 7, 2017 and are available on the SEC website. ### Forward-Looking Statements

Certain information contained in this release that are not statements of historical or current fact constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 27E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These statements may be identified by the use of words such as "may," "will," "expect," "intend," "anticipate," "believe" and "plan." The forward-looking statements contained in this release include, without limitation, statements related to: the expected timing, size, terms and the Company's ability to complete the Offering and any debt financing; the Company's anticipated use of proceeds from the Offering; and the completion of the proposed Acquisition and the timing and financing thereof.

These and other forward-looking statements are based on management's current views and assumptions and involve risks and uncertainties that could significantly affect expected results. Results may be materially affected by factors such as: risks associated with acquisitions generally, such as the inability to obtain, or delays in obtaining, required approvals under applicable and trust legislation and other regulatory and third-party consents and approvals; potential volatility in the capital markets and impact on the ability to complete the proposed debt and equity financing necessary to satisfy the purchase price; the ability to meet the management and employees of RB Food, secure or delays in the successful integration of RB Food's operations with those of the Company; including meeting or experiencing unexpected costs and/or delays or difficulties; difficulties or delays in the successful integration of the RB Food's business from the information technology systems of RB to those of McCormick as well as risks associated with other integration or transitions of the operations, systems and personnel of RB Food; such as, as applicable, within the term of the six-month post-closing transition agreement between McCormick and RB; the low levels of resources being lower than anticipated and costs being higher than expected; failure or inability to implement growth strategies in timely manner; unforeseen reaction to the acquisition by customers, competitors, suppliers and employees; conditions affecting the industry generally; local and global political and economic conditions; conditions in the securities market that are less favorable than expected; and changes in the level of capital investment, and other risks described in the company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including McCormick's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Actual results could differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. The company undertakes no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required by law.
